About this document

The Target Market Determination (TMD) sets out who this product may and may not be suitable for, as well as the likely financial situation and needs of the consumer. It also outlines the triggers to review the target market, how it is to be distributed, and certain other information.

This document is not a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), and is not a summary of the product features or terms of the product. Consumers interested in acquiring this product should read the PDS carefully before making a decision whether to buy this product.

Key things to know

Who the product may be suitable for

The target market includes:

- consumers who meet eligibility, underwriting and residency requirements
- consumers who have the financial capacity to pay the premiums over the period they intend to hold the product, and
- consumers who want to reduce their financial risk in the event of the life insured (either themselves or someone else) experiencing a claimable event (described under each cover type).

Who the product may not be suitable for

The target market excludes:

As the premiums may vary from time to time (in accordance with the chosen premium structure), the consumer should have the financial capacity to pay the premiums over the period they intend to hold the product.

The consumer must have at least one of the following potentially relevant sources of financial capacity to pay the premiums:

- Earning an income

MLC Insurance (Super) and MLC Insurance (Wrap and SMSF)

Who the product may be suitable for

A consumer is in the target market for life insurance within the super environment if they accept that there are legislative restrictions that impact the insurance cover, including:

- the insurance premiums must be paid from a super fund or by making a contribution or rollover to a super account
- any insurance benefit will be paid via the trustee of the super fund, who must also independently review and approve payment of the benefit
- if the consumer dies and has not made a valid binding death benefit nomination, the trustee of the super fund will determine the beneficiary or beneficiaries who will receive the death benefit
- the qualifying definitions under which an insurance benefit can be paid must be consistent with legislated superannuation rules called 'conditions of release'
- the legislated 'conditions of release' must be satisfied before an insurance benefit can be released by the trustee of the super fund to the member
- taxation may apply to benefit payments paid to the member or beneficiary, and
- where superannuation savings are used to pay premiums, this will reduce the superannuation balance available to consumers in retirement, and consumers should consider whether payment of premiums via superannuation will inappropriately erode their retirement income.

Product attributes (applies to all covers)

Premiums

Our premium rates can change over time and are not guaranteed.

From 3 February 2024 we only offer variable age-stepped premium rates.

Variable age-stepped premiums are calculated each year based on the life insured's age and will usually increase each year as they get older.

Level premiums[#] are calculated based on the benefit amount, the life insured's age when they apply for that benefit amount and the applicable premium rate for that age each year. Level premiums have the cost of providing insurance spread out over a number of years. Level premiums start out higher than variable age-stepped premiums, but may become lower than variable age-stepped premiums at some point in the future. Level premiums do not increase because of age, however level premiums may still change due to other factors.

[#] Level premiums are only available if your policy was current as of 2 February 2024 or your insurance on level premium was transferred from a policy that was current as of 2 February 2024.

Premiums will change for several reasons including if:

- the cover changes, including if there is an automatic change to the terms of the cover when the life insured reaches a particular age, or an option is added or removed.
- the benefit amount changes, including because of indexation increases or the Increases without further medical evidence feature is exercised or by you requesting an increase.
- there are changes to stamp duty or other charges, or
- we change the premium rates, discounts or policy fees.

Note: Occupationally Acquired HIV, Hepatitis B or C, and Child Critical Illness are only available as variable age-stepped premiums.

Payments

If premiums are not paid the policy may lapse, in which case the life insured would no longer be covered and cannot make a claim.

The consumer has the ability to pay premiums:

- on a monthly, half-yearly or annual basis via direct debit, credit card, cheque, BPAY or eligible super wrap account¹
- by rollover from an external super fund (only annual premium frequency is allowed using this method).
- from an eligible MLC account¹ (only annual premium frequency is allowed using this method).

¹The full list of eligible accounts and which type of premiums can be deducted from those accounts are available on our website and PDS.

Eligibility criteria

A consumer wanting to obtain this coverage through one or more of these products need to meet the eligibility criteria. The eligibility criteria of the life to be insured could include:

- their age
- employment status[^]
- residency status, and
- health status.

[^]To be eligible for Income Protection, Business Expenses, Occupationally Acquired HIV, Hepatitis B or C and Total and Permanent Disablement insurance the life insured must be permanently gainfully employed and working over 25 hours per week. Contractors, casual workers and those working less than 25 hours may be eligible subject to underwriting terms and conditions.

A consumer will still be considered within the target market and to have met eligibility criteria if:

- MLCL reinstate their policy within six months of the lapse date due to non-payment of premium and they have satisfied MLCL's reinstatement requirements
- they exercise an option to continue, convert or buyback cover under the policy terms of their PDS, or
- MLCL allow them to replace their existing cover as a result of a change of ownership.

Benefit customisability

All covers under the product include customisable and additional optional benefits.

Underwriting process

The underwriting process could impact the price of the product, the sum insured, and the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.

Residency

This product is available to:

- Australian permanent residents
- Australian citizens
- New Zealand citizens residing in Australia, and
- Consumers with certain temporary visas (subject to underwriting terms and conditions).

Benefit type

The product provides insurance benefits only. It does not provide for any accumulation of savings and has no future surrender value.

Linking benefits

Lump sum covers can be purchased as:

- Stand alone – these are independent of all other covers.
- Extensions – these are attached to another cover. You pay less for this structure because any claim payment on one cover will reduce the benefits of the covers they are attached to.
- Connected – these work exactly the same as Extensions but are held as separate policies. For example, cover inside super could be connected to cover outside super.

Distribution conditions

For distribution via personal advice

Application for cover must be submitted by a suitably authorised financial adviser (ie authorised in life risk products and/or super), operating under an appropriate Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) who has accepted the MLCL Distribution Agreement and attained a licensee code and adviser code.

For distribution via general advice

- The distributor must not sell to a customer who does not satisfy the demographic factors and eligibility requirements in the Target Market as set out above.
- The distributor must provide the customer with the PDS.
- The distributor has structured training and/or quality assurance standards.
- The customer meets application screening questions.
- Application for cover must be submitted via an appropriate AFSL, with appropriate authorisation, who has accepted the MLCL Distribution Agreement and has attained a licensee and adviser code.

Why these distribution conditions and restrictions will make it more likely that the consumers who acquire the product are in the target market

For distribution via personal advice

Consumers that obtain personal advice from a qualified financial adviser are more likely to be in the target market because advisers have a duty to act in their best interest when providing personal advice.

For distribution via general advice

Consumers of life insurance are more likely to be in the target market if distributors:

- refrain from selling to customers who do not meet the relevant demographic and eligibility requirements, and
- provide customers with a PDS.
